Mr. Pfeiffer,

I'm responding because Edison and LeighAn are out of the office today. I will be in a deposition today. Unfortunately, we will not be able to confer with you this morning at 8 am.

Is there a time that works next week for you?

Mr. McDaniels,

Please do not have your staff send me any email, especially those which may be considered threatening, harassing, or unwanted.

I am available at 8AM tomorrow for a telecon, this assuming you are prepared to discuss the abandoned project, each email, text, telephone call, or in-person meeting I was involved in, the fraud concerning the permit, the no-service mechanics' lein(s), virtually all work (not up to workmanlike standards per legal precedent, all pictures, video, and narrative on my website shared and delivered to the plaintiff, etc. If you wish to decline this invitation I will continue to look into this and I will respond appropriately: I have seen no amount sought or reason such a discussion is necessary and I am prepared to go to trial immediately. You should already possess everything mentioned above.

While perhaps preemptive, I am shocked by the ethics violations already encountered; the email below is a continuation. I will file a complaint. Some of this is just laughable--wild animals? A notary in Louisiana claiming I have been served for a hearing? I still have no idea what happened with or to the original attorney from your firm on this case. Anyway, the delays and excuses have been excessive. I will include the work "vexation" here.

In a nutshell, you are being scammed just like I was. My compensation to compete the project with the remaining half-payment was and is a fair settlement. The vendor should have stopped there.

Finally, I write this respectfully. I do believe you know the facts. Me? I graduated from Michigan and Georgia and went to GWU while working in the director's office at FBI headquarters. My home is still in disrepair, BTW the driveway damage caused by your client is $1,200, one example, and I have done nothing wrong. I am a victim.

Sincerely,

Peter C. Pfeiffer

Mr. Pfeiffer,

As previously requested, please ensure you copy my team on any emails you send. It is not realistic to expect me to be your sole contact here at the firm, that is not the way we operate. I fail to see how members of my office contacting you implicates my ethical obligations; we will continue to work on this as a team and contact you as necessary, including my staff. Furthermore, utilizing my staff keeps attorneys fees down, which you would be responsible for if this action is successful.

I highly recommend you obtain counsel as this is a foreclosure action and future ownership of your property is at issue.

You need to make your request for in-person appearances with the court, not my office. I'm happy to attend in person, so long as the court makes that option available. At the moment, the court has set the case management conference as virtual only.

I will treat your motion to dismiss discussion below as a conferral. Without information concerning the legal basis for your motion to dismiss, we have to oppose. If you'd like to have a true conferral and discuss the legal basis of the motion, please let me know. Although I am doubtful it will change our position.

Thanks,

Edison McDaniels

Mr. McDaniels,

This is what I would call Fraud on the Court #1. You have not provided evidence of service for a mechanics' lien, yet you continue to submit and resubmit these documents to the court. I am not aware of a hearing or lien on my home. This is not proper service per C.R.S. Title 38 Article 22. Then the case was dismissed and you personally reviewed it and asked that the dismissal be removed. You have not responded to any evidence provided to you on the condition of the construction site (my home).

Again, please see the list on my website, presented in person to Nick Bennett in 2024, of problems with the project.

And, once again, please stop your assistant from contacting me. You are responsible for the ethics (ABA and CRPC) violations.

Thank you,

Peter Pfeiffer

Hello Mr. McDaniels,

This is what I am calling fraud on the court #2--the fraud that the project was completed satisfactorily with a legitimate permit, warranty and repairs. As noted in an earlier email to you, the website is now pcpfeiffer.com.

I anticipate filing a motion to dismiss this week. There are numerous procedural problems as well. In the meantime, please fill me in on Case Management plans, meetings or activities; I require in-person meetings or hearings not video conferencing.

No one from AC Inc. Roofing has ever been to the roof to inspect it or the gutters. The unsigned permit attached to my home was recently removed. The fraudulent attachment to this email was pasted together with Dec 2025 mid-construction photos to fool the County. Britton Jean was at my home and on the roof 3/26/25 and Nick Bennett has never shown up or corrected the deficiencies since we met in Dec 2025 at my home.

You should know all this from due diligence into the case before initiating it.

I have spent $5500 on my driveway and will spend another $2000 this week on the exterior faults or omissions for/from the abandoned project.

Thank you,

Peter Pfeiffer

Wow! Thank you.

I was home and wanted to speak with the inspector on 1/6. I stood outside and waited; I gently gestured, stop at the bottom of the driveway as, I believe there was snow and ice, but specifically because the contractors caused a large hole near the bottom and mud and rocks were loose. It is a short walk to my garage from the bottom. The bottom is level and it is usually the best place to park.

Friday before the contractor brought a ladder for your use. He came back Monday around 5 PM to pick it up. I explained, twice, the inspector (white Jeffco pickup drove to the bottom, I gestured to stop, and he/she drove away). He took his ladder and left.

Monday 1/13 I was informed by the contractor the permit has been approved and something to the affect that 'it is usually done electronically these days.' I checked online and found it approved as of 1/13 (I believe) with no Jeffco name included. The paper permit is still attached near my front door.

I can usually see vehicles approach and pause (in front of my home; the driveway is a bit further up Roan Drive) from my office. I often rush out and try and greet the visitor. My driveway can be difficult. That is what I did. I only had about 10 seconds. This is not close to accurate: "No Access-Occupant waived inspector off from pulling into driveway twice- two attempts , gesturing and appearing irate. Please let an occupant know the roof was scheduled for inspection." I wanted to speak to the inspector and I should have that right.

I am disappointed but not surprised the contractor acted that way. It is a scam and it was a cover-up. Previously, I had specifically asked for the inspector's name and contact information. The scam is documented here: <https://pcpfeiffer.org/nick-bennett-ac-inc-roofing-scam>. This specifically was an attempt to gain permit approval with the wrong gutter guards installed and numerous other defects requiring attention. Their behavior only confirms my accusations against them.

One was... No photographs taken on and of my property without my permission. The owner assured me they had all been destroyed on 12/27/24. I am stunned this could happen without my knowledge, consent, or participation.

Mr./Ms./Gender Neutral Jaen, I am thrilled to have reached you. I left a message for someone, perhaps you, on 2/6/25. I would appreciate it if you could come to my home; if not, I hope we can talk.

Right now I am waiting for the 3-month period to expire RE a mechanics lien. I expect to make a report to the state attorney general RE fraud and to warn others about this company. And I am prepared and capable RE suing them.

Another anecdote RE your description below: the contractor was told repeatedly no subcontractors without supervision. That is, in fact, how the whole project transpired.

Question: What are the laws, rules, and procedures RE "permit fraud?" That is exactly what happened here. Also, I should mention I was never informed, per statute of appropriate mechanics' lien statutes or regulation.

Thank you very much for the quick, detailed response. Your explanation is disturbing--I should have a right to be involved. I hope we can speak soon.

P.S. I was here and spoke with the inspector for the mid-roof. No contractor employee was present. I had to explain the supplies and answer questions.

On 2/18/2025 3:46 PM, Britton Jaen wrote:

Hello Mr. Pfeiffer

We have three inspection processes on record for the address 30545 Roan Drive.

The initial being a midroof inspection on December 23, 2024 where we inspected the tear off of the old roof and the materials and installation of the new roof.

We have a process for a final inspection occurring on January 06, 2025 where the inspection could not be made due to circumstance as follows; "No Access- Occupant waived inspector off from pulling into driveway twice- two attempts , gesturing and appearing irate. Please let an occupant know the roof was scheduled for inspection."

A third process was documented on January 13, 2025 stating that we spoke to the permit holder (your roofing contractor) letting him know we were unable to perform the inspection in the field on the previous attempt.

The permit holder then stated getting on site would be difficult for the same reason as we had cited on the Jan. 06 and provided a very comprehensive series of photographs that I have attached to this email. I agreed to look at the photos, reserving that a field inspection may still be necessary. Seeing as the photos were thorough and the roofs both shingle and modified bitumen appear to be installed correctly, I felt comfortable closing the permit. Please contact me if I can be of any assistance.

For the Court,

Because Mr. Pfeiffer is complaining of non-compliance, I have included you in this email explaining the efforts we have taken to cooperate with Mr. Pfeiffer and provide him with what he needs to understand the allegations against him. In addition to the documents identified in my response below, I have included the remainder of the thread he forwarded to you (attached email with Fraud#1 in the subject), including where he states that my assistant's (paralegal's) "email[s] go to [his] junk" folder. Given Mr. Pfeiffer's repeated accusations of unethical conduct and violations of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure and his intentional dismissal of communications from my office, I believe Friday's case management conference is absolutely necessary for us to complete the case management order.

Mr. Pfeiffer,

My paralegal has sent you several items to facilitate the processes you claim have not been followed. See the attached email thread where my paralegal provided initial disclosures (containing information concerning the notice of intent to lien and service upon you of same), provided you with the court's notice of Friday's Case Management Conference (currently scheduled for 8::30am through the court's Webex platform), a draft of the case management order for your input, and an invitation to schedule a time to discuss the draft case management order with me. Additionally, the initial disclosures, notice of case management conference, and everything else that has been filed were mailed directly to your home through the court's e-filing system. Your claims of harassment and intimidation concerning my paralegal sending you emails are absurd. Your intentional action to send her emails directly to junk "due in part to falsification" is the roadblock to you receiving information in this case. With all due respect, I have roughly 50 cases and cannot be the primary contact for scheduling, transmitting disclosures, etc. for all of my cases. This is why we have a team; I rely upon my staff, in part, to ensure compliance with the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure as well as the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct just as all litigators do.

After receiving no response from you concerning the draft case management order, it was filed on the deadline, March 13, 2026; also attached. As mentioned above, the court has set a case management conference for a virtual appearance on Friday, March 20, at 8:30am. That notice is also attached; it contains the login information. I do not understand your comment regarding obtaining emails from the County. Just as we must provide initial disclosure, you have the same obligation under C.R.C.P 26. If there are non-privileged communications, documents, pictures, etc. relevant to this dispute in your possession, you are required to disclose those.

Finally, concerning the brochure you sent, we are at the point where we are setting case deadlines (that's what the case management order and case management conference are for) and will be moving into phase 2 after Friday's conference. I am unsure what you are claiming has been out of line with the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure. I again urge you to obtain counsel to help you better understand the process and how the rules are interpreted and applied. We have worked through the process outlined under Colorado Law and have complied with the requirements of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure in prosecuting this case to current. If you have specific concerns with how we have handled this case, I recommend you bring those up with the court at Friday's conference as the court is the appropriate party to address your concerns.

Mr. McDaniels,

FYI, this was forwarded to the clerk as well.

You will find this PowerPoint presentation, at least the photos, in an email from Ricky Donald mid-construction. It was redone in January to try and fool the inspector.

You may send me a draft case management plan in the proper format per the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure after our required meet and confer if you like. And, your efforts for arbitration or mediation. As I wrote to you in January (no reply) all emails to or from me or concerning my home or project from AC Inc Roofing must be provided; and all recorded customer service phone calls; texts too. If you have read these you will know the extreme problems during the project.

And I have all emails--please get them from the County--sent to deal with the permit fraud created personally by Nick Bennett. And of course I have all receipts finishing and/or correcting the abandoned project. They go up to the head of Jeffco Planning & Zoning.

Please follow the rules and procedures outlined in the attached (repeat send to you) as the Responsible Attorney.

Regards,

Peter Pfeiffer

Hello Mr. McDaniels,

This is what I am calling fraud on the court #2--the fraud that the project was completed satisfactorily with a legitimate permit, warranty and repairs. As noted in an earlier email to you, the website is now pcpfeiffer.com.

I anticipate filing a motion to dismiss this week. There are numerous procedural problems as well. In the meantime, please fill me in on Case Management plans, meetings or activities; I require in-person meetings or hearings not video conferencing.

No one from AC Inc. Roofing has ever been to the roof to inspect it or the gutters. The unsigned permit attached to my home was recently removed. The fraudulent attachment to this email was pasted together with Dec 2025 mid-construction photos to fool the County. Britton Jaen was at my home and on the roof 3/26/25 and Nick Bennett has never shown up or corrected the deficiencies since we met in Dec 2025 at my home.

You should know all this from due diligence into the case before initiating it.

I have spent $5500 on my driveway and will spend another $2000 this week on the exterior faults or omissions for/ from the abandoned project.

Thank you,

Wow! Thank you.

I was home and wanted to speak with the inspector on 1/6. I stood outside and waited; I gently gestured, stop at the bottom of the driveway as, I believe there was snow and ice, but specifically because the contractors caused a large hole near the bottom and mud and rocks were loose. It is a short walk to my garage from the bottom. The bottom is level and it is usually the best place to park.

Friday before the contractor brought a ladder for your use. He came back Monday around 5 PM to pick it up. I explained, twice, the inspector (white Jeffco pickup drove to the bottom, I gestured to stop, and he/she drove away). He took his ladder and left.

Monday 1/13 I was informed by the contractor the permit has been approved and something to the affect that 'it is usually done electronically these days.' I checked online and found it approved as of 1/13 (I believe) with no Jeffco name included. The paper permit is still attached near my front door.

I can usually see vehicles approach and pause (in front of my home; the driveway is a bit further up Roan Drive) from my office. I often rush out and try and greet the visitor. My driveway can be difficult. That is what I did. I only had about 10 seconds. This is not close to accurate: "No Access- Occupant waived inspector off from pulling into driveway twice- two attempts , gesturing and appearing irate. Please let an occupant know the roof was scheduled for inspection." I wanted to speak to the inspector and I should have that right.

I am disappointed but not surprised the contractor acted that way. It is a scam and it was a cover-up. Previously, I had specifically asked for the inspector's name and contact information. The scam is documented here: <https://pcpfeiffer.org/nick-bennett-ac-inc-roofing-scam>. This specifically was an attempt to gain permit approval with the wrong gutter guards installed and numerous other defects requiring attention. Their behavior only confirms my accusations against them.

One was... No photographs taken on and of my property without my permission. The owner assured me they had all been destroyed on 12/27/24. I am stunned this could happen without my knowledge, consent, or participation.

Mr./Ms./Gender Neutral Jaen, I am thrilled to have reached you. I left a message for someone, perhaps you, on 2/6/25. I would appreciate it if you could come to my home; if not, I hope we can talk.

Right now I am waiting for the 3-month period to expire RE a mechanics lien. I expect to make a report to the state attorney general RE fraud and to warn others about this company. And I am prepared and capable RE suing them.

Another anecdote RE your description below: the contractor was told repeatedly no subcontractors without supervision. That is, in fact, how the whole project transpired.

Question: What are the laws, rules, and procedures RE "permit fraud?" That is exactly what happened here. Also, I should mention I was never informed, per statute of appropriate mechanics' lien statutes or regulation.

Thank you very much for the quick, detailed response. Your explanation is disturbing--I should have a right to be involved. I hope we can speak soon.

Hello Mr. Pfeiffer

We have three inspection processes on record for the address 30545 Roan Drive.

The initial being a midroof inspection on December 23, 2024 where we inspected the tear off of the old roof and the materials and installation of the new roof.

We have a process for a final inspection occurring on January 06, 2025 where the inspection could not be made due to circumstance as follows; "No Access- Occupant waived inspector off from pulling into driveway twice- two attempts , gesturing and appearing irate. Please let an occupant know the roof was scheduled for inspection."

A third process was documented on January 13, 2025 stating that we spoke to the permit holder (your roofing contractor) letting him know we were unable to perform the inspection in the field on the previous attempt.

The permit holder then stated getting on site would be difficult for the same reason as we had cited on the Jan. 06 and provided a very comprehensive series of photographs that I have attached to this email. I agreed to look at the photos, reserving that a field inspection may still be necessary. Seeing as the photos were thorough and the roofs both shingle and modified bitumen appear to be installed correctly, I felt comfortable closing the permit. Please contact me if I can be of any assistance.

Mr. McDaniels,

Thank you for the reply. Has it been 3 months?

The legal issues are:

Please provide proof of service for you alleged mechanics' liens and

Please provide a signed on-site building permit.

Attached, this has not been followed. Confirmed with CRCP.

Thank you. Since you have not replied and provided specifics, I assume the court has not required a meeting and one is not taking place this week. I have received no such notice from the court.

Your assistant has been notified multiple times: her email goes to junk due to impairment to falsification. I must advise, harassment and intimidation will not be tolerated.

I still don't understand, this is over a few thousand dollars of repairs?

Very best,

Peter Pfeiffer

As previously requested, please ensure you copy my team on any emails you send. It is not realistic to expect me to be your sole contact here at the firm, that is not the way we operate. I fail to see how members of my office contacting you implicates my ethical obligations; we will continue to work on this as a team and contact you as necessary, including my staff. Furthermore, utilizing my staff keeps attorneys fees down, which you would be responsible for if this action is successful.

I highly recommend you obtain counsel as this is a foreclosure action and future ownership of your property is at issue.

You need to make your request for in-person appearances with the court, not my office. I'm happy to attend in person, so long as the court makes that option available. At the moment, the court has set the case management conference as virtual only.

I will treat your motion to dismiss discussion below as a conferral. Without information concerning the legal basis for your motion to dismiss, we have to oppose. If you'd like to have a true conferral and discuss the legal basis of the motion, please let me know. Although I am doubtful it will change our position.

This is what I would call Fraud on the Court #1. You have not provided evidence of service for a mechanics' lien, yet you continue to submit and resubmit these documents to the court. I am not aware of a hearing or lien on my home. This is not proper service per C.R.S. Title 38 Article 22. Then the case was dismissed and you personally reviewed it and asked that the dismissal be removed. You have not responded to any evidence provided to you on the condition of the construction site (my home).

Again, please see the list on my website, presented in person to Nick Bennett in 2024, of problems with the project.

And, once again, please stop your assistant from contacting me. You are responsible for the ethics (ABA and CRPC) violations.

For the Court,

Because Mr. Pfeiffer is complaining of non-compliance, I have included you in this email explaining the efforts we have taken to cooperate with Mr. Pfeiffer and provide him with what he needs to understand the allegations against him. In addition to the documents identified in my response below, I have included the remainder of the thread he forwarded to you (attached email with Fraud#1 in the subject), including where he states that my assistant's (paralegal's) "email[s] go to [his] junk" folder. Given Mr. Pfeiffer's repeated accusations of unethical conduct and violations of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure and his intentional dismissal of communications from my office, I believe Friday's case management conference is absolutely necessary for us to complete the case management order.

Mr. Pfeiffer,

My paralegal has sent you several items to facilitate the processes you claim have not been followed. See the attached email thread where my paralegal provided initial disclosures (containing information concerning the notice of intent to lien and service upon you of same), provided you with the court's notice of Friday's Case Management Conference (currently scheduled for 8:30am through the court's Webex platform), a draft of the case management order for your input, and an invitation to schedule a time to discuss the draft case management order with me. Additionally, the initial disclosures, notice of case management conference, and everything else that has been filed were mailed directly to your home through the court's e-filing system. Your claims of harassment and intimidation concerning my paralegal sending you emails are absurd. Your intentional action to send her emails directly to junk "due in part to falsification" is the roadblock to you receiving information in this case. With all due respect, I have roughly 50 cases and cannot be the primary contact for scheduling, transmitting disclosures, etc. for all of my cases. This is why we have a team; I rely upon my staff, in part, to ensure compliance with the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure as well as the Colorado Rules of Professional Conduct just as all litigators do.

After receiving no response from you concerning the draft case management order, it was filed on the deadline, March 13, 2026; also attached. As mentioned above, the court has set a case management conference for a virtual appearance on Friday, March 20, at 8:30am. That notice is also attached; it contains the login information. I do not understand your comment regarding obtaining emails from the County. Just as we must provide initial disclosure, you have the same obligation under C.R.C.P 26. If there are non-privileged communications, documents, pictures, etc. relevant to this dispute in your possession, you are required to disclose those.

Finally, concerning the brochure you sent, we are at the point where we are setting case deadlines (that's what the case management order and case management conference are for) and will be moving into phase 2 after Friday's conference. I am unsure what you are claiming has been out of line with the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure. I again urge you to obtain counsel to help you better understand the process and how the rules are interpreted and applied. We have worked through the process outlined under Colorado Law and have complied with the requirements of the Colorado Rules of Civil Procedure in prosecuting this case to current. If you have specific concerns with how we have handled this case, I recommend you bring those up with the court at Friday's conference as the court is the appropriate party to address your concerns.

Thanks,

Edison McDaniels

I am disappointed but not surprised the contractor acted that way. It is a scam and it was a cover-up. Previously, I had specifically asked for the inspector's name and contact information. The scam is documented here: <https://pcpfeiffer.org/nick-bennett-ac-inc-roofing-scam>. This specifically was an attempt to gain permit approval with the wrong gutter guards installed and numerous other defects requiring attention. Their behavior only confirms my accusations against them.

One was... No photographs taken on and of my property without my permission. The owner assured me they had all been destroyed on 12/27/24. I am stunned this could happen without my knowledge, consent, or participation.

Mr./Ms./Gender Neutral Jaen, I am thrilled to have reached you. I left a message for someone, perhaps you, on 2/6/25. I would appreciate it if you could come to my home; if not, I hope we can talk.

Right now I am waiting for the 3-month period to expire RE a mechanics lien. I expect to make a report to the state attorney general RE fraud and to warn others about this company. And I am prepared and capable RE suing them.

Another anecdote RE your description below: the contractor was told repeatedly no subcontractors without supervision. That is, in fact, how the whole project transpired.

Question: What are the laws, rules, and procedures RE "permit fraud?" That is exactly what happened here. Also, I should mention I was never informed, per statute of appropriate mechanics' lien statutes or regulation.

Thank you very much for the quick, detailed response. Your explanation is disturbing--I should have a right to be involved. I hope we can speak soon.

P.S. I was here and spoke with the inspector for the mid-roof. No contractor employee was present. I had to explain the supplies and answer questions.

Hello Mr. Pfeiffer

We have three inspection processes on record for the address 30545 Roan Drive.

The initial being a midroof inspection on December 23, 2024 where we inspected the tear off of the old roof and the materials and installation of the new roof.

We have a process for a final inspection occurring on January 06, 2025 where the inspection could not be made due to circumstance as follows; “No Access- Occupant waived inspector off from pulling into driveway twice- two attempts , gesturing and appearing irate. Please let an occupant know the roof was scheduled for inspection.”

A third process was documented on January 13, 2025 stating that we spoke to the permit holder (your roofing contractor) letting him know we were unable to perform the inspection in the field on the previous attempt.

The permit holder then stated getting on site would be difficult for the same reason as we had cited on the Jan. 06 and provided a very comprehensive series of photographs that I have attached to this email. I agreed to look at the photos, reserving that a field inspection may still be necessary. Seeing as the photos were thorough and the roofs both shingle and modified bitumen appear to be installed correctly, I felt comfortable closing the permit. Please contact me if I can be of any assistance.

Mr. Pfeiffer,

I understand you do not want to engage with my team but it is imperative that you copy them on all communications you send to me.

We cannot go to mediation until you either produce initial disclosures, or you verify that you have no documents related to the issues in this case. If you have no documents relevant to the issues in this case please let us know. This is another reason that I must once again suggest you obtain counsel or at least advisory counsel. These are serious proceedings and it is important that you understand what is going on and what is at stake.

Additionally, you stated several times that you would be filing a motion to dismiss or something of the sort. Do you still intend on filing such a motion or have you decided to proceed forward?

We discussed documents that you claim support your position that you would be providing. Additionally, you are required under C.R.C.P. 26(a) to provide initial disclosures. The text of the rule is as follows:

Rule 26. Duty to Disclose; General Provisions Governing Discovery

(a) Required Disclosures.

(1) Initial Disclosure.

(A) In General. Except as exempted by Rule 26(a)(1)(B) or as otherwise stipulated or ordered by the court, a party must, without awaiting a discovery request, provide to the other parties:

- (i) the name and, if known, the address and telephone number of each individual likely to have discoverable information—along with the subjects of that information—that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment;
- (ii) a copy—or a description by category and location—of all documents, electronically stored information, and tangible things that the disclosing party has in its possession, custody, or control and may use to support its claims or defenses, unless the use would be solely for impeachment;
- (iii) a computation of each category of damages claimed by the disclosing party—who must also make available for inspection and copying as under Rule 34 the documents or other evidentiary material, unless privileged or protected from disclosure, on which each computation is based, including materials bearing on the nature and extent of injuries suffered; and
- (iv) for inspection and copying as under Rule 34, any insurance agreement under which an insurance business may be liable to satisfy all or part of a possible judgment in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment.

(B) Proceedings Exempt from Initial Disclosure. The following proceedings are exempt from initial disclosure:

- (i) an action for review on an administrative record;
- (ii) a forfeiture action in rem arising from a federal statute;
- (iii) a petition for habeas corpus or any other proceeding to challenge a criminal conviction or sentence;
- (iv) an action brought without an attorney by a person in the custody of the United States, a state, or a state subdivision;
- (v) an action to enforce or quash an administrative summons or subpoena;

- (vi) an action by the United States to recover benefit payments;
- (vii) an action by the United States to collect on a student loan guaranteed by the United States;
- (viii) a proceeding ancillary to a proceeding in another court; and
- (ix) an action to enforce an arbitration award.

(C) Time for Initial Disclosures—In General. A party must make the initial disclosures at or within 14 days after the parties' Rule 26(f) conference unless a different time is set by stipulation or court order, or unless a party objects during the conference that initial disclosures are not appropriate in this action and states the objection in the proposed discovery plan. In ruling on the objection, the court must determine what disclosures, if any, are to be made and must set the time for disclosure.

(D) Time for Initial Disclosures—For Parties Served or Joined Later. A party that is first served or otherwise joined after the Rule 26(f) conference must make the initial disclosures within 30 days after being served or joined, unless a different time is set by stipulation or court order.

(E) Basis for Initial Disclosure; Unacceptable Excuses. A party must make its initial disclosures based on the information then reasonably available to it. A party is not excused from making its disclosures because it has not fully investigated the case or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because another party has not made its disclosures

Mr. Pfeiffer,

As has been requested numerous times, please copy my team on all emails. We work together as a team and all need to stay informed of developments in this matter.

I apologize but I am having a hard time understanding your concerns. I also don't understand your allegations of malice. This is a mechanic's lien foreclosure action. The ideal resolution for us would be to receive payment. We do not want to foreclose on your property but your refusal to pay leaves us with this remedy under the law. We are happy to resolve this without going to trial and would prefer to resolve by way of mediation or negotiation. That being said, you have refused to provide any disclosures despite your representations that you have evidence that my client is not being truthful, the work was not done in a workmanlike manner, and various other categories of defenses. Although I understand you have concerns with the action against you, I do not have any evidence of my client being untruthful or any of the other items you mentioned during our video call and thereafter. I cannot just take you at your spoken word when all of the evidence I have contradicts your statements. I would like mediation to be productive and have disclosed the items we have concerning this litigation. If you are adamant about not providing disclosures we have two options. We can set a discovery dispute hearing with the court, which will require:

Discovery Disputes: The Court requires discovery motions to be presented orally. If there is a discovery dispute, parties are expected to confer in a meaningful way in person or by telephone to try and resolve the dispute. An exchange of emails, text messages or voice messages does not qualify.

If parties cannot resolve the dispute, please email 01Division7@judicial.state.co.us to set a hearing either in person or via WebEx. Parties must file a joint brief no more than two pages outlining the discovery dispute and supporting law for their request or objection a day prior to the hearing. If a joint brief is not filed, the Court may dispense with the hearing.

This comes straight from the court's Civil Procedure Order (paragraph 9), also attached. I'm happy to discuss this again by phone if you'd like but I find it to be futile if you are not going to provide initial disclosures.

Or we can go to mediation, which I don't think will be productive without disclosure. I have no information indicating that my client's lien amount is incorrect, improper, excessive, etc., and therefore have no basis to reduce the amount demanded from what is in the complaint. At this point, we are still seeking full payment as indicated in the complaint and contract.

For your records, a copy of the motion to set aside and the supporting affidavit is attached. This motion was granted and is not relevant to the dispute in this case.

As has been the case, all items filed by the court or by my office are being mailed to you at the address given. We are also sending an additional courtesy copy of each item we file. If you are not receiving mail, please address that with the court. I believe you may be able to sign up for e-mail alerts for filings as well. Again, I urge you to discuss this with the court, the clerk should be able to help direct you to get this resolved.

Please let me know if you are willing to provide initial disclosures. If not, I will draft a brief to send over for your review and additions to file with the request for a discovery dispute hearing.

Thanks,

Edison McDaniels

Mr. McDaniels,

I am reading a printout of your motion to set aside dismissal now. Long ago, I was able to persuade a clerk to send it to me. I believe I have mentioned this already. I do not have the attachments (unless maybe they are with the original email). I am still without access to this, because you have not sent it to me along with a record, as you showed me on your screen, of all court documents. This puts me at a disadvantage. I have already informed you of 4.3: Dealing with Unrepresented Person in ABA Rules of Professional Conduct and responsibilities of the Responsible Attorney.

Anyway, your motion to set aside dismissal represents the start of the problem; there are numerous wild elk and deer in unincorporated Jefferson County and in my neighborhood. My home is in perfect condition and repair, nothing as described; any nuances would be attributable to your client. I may need to incorporate this procedure for the case management order. You did not respond at all after the case became at issue, including to your knowledge at that time of the numerous untruths in your petition. To date your initial disclosures are bizarre: you, and these people, have no documents, photographs, or evidence which you are sharing at all? And they, the AC Inc Roofing employees will testify they did not supervise the subcontractors, never inspected inspected it after they left, paid no attention to the numerous problems, did not verify the service, etc. It is an exceedingly simple case: If they lie, each to and from email confirms it.

You have failed to produce any evidence that the project was completed, with or without the my satisfaction or approval. You have included no letters, inspections, etc. You told me: Nick Bennett, as I have proven to you (and get the documents, e.g., photos, from Jeffco), said so is all you have. (BTW, as you know or should know, photos on my property without my approval are not allowed). You have no proof because there is none. Again, it started with the motion to set aside and it continues to this day--you have kindly intentionally refused evidence I have provided to you.

I write this to say, I am an emailer and communicator. I keep documents, photographs, files, videos, and website(s).

But I'll stop because while I am free to write, you may wish to stick to the case specifics. I don't know if you can still use the "mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect " excuse. I don't know what the word is. Obfuscation? With each new communication it is looking more like malice. The most important thing is for me to correct the record at hand and deal with continued threats and intimidation. The Denver Sheriff selling my house? Numerous torts? And your previous email. I own my >$700K house (and I maintain) with no mortgage and am a wealthy man. I have no interest in whatever your client is paying you. The list is a long one. Another is still sending or confusing with legitimate service first class mail with certified printing. Your assistant is not "counsel." Etc. I wish for mediation immediately and per the judges order and to help identify, document, clarify, or rectify the numerous problems created (passive voice).

I am writing now to communicate the following. First, please disregard my previous email. I will not be sending a disclosure statement immediately. I could have let you wait a week like I do but I am not. I continue to behave in good faith, in a businesslike manner, and respectfully.

I believe the judge's order takes priority over your C.R.C.P. quoting and violation could be contempt. There are also, based on overall situation, there are various legitimate reasons for my delay. Should you have a legal rebuttal you may provide it.

Same with 3) communication only through/from the principals included with your petition. Your case management order behavior was downright sneaky and with not time for me to even respond (which I did almost immediately when you notified me). I did try to contact other principals listed in your firm only to learn they are not informed, involved, or responsive. Again, the intimidation list is long. As I mentioned in my first email I feel it is (even more) appropriate to mail (as required for the past month per the website) and document ethics issues in terms of a formal complaint. Since you will not explain to me any evidence (the contract too, is completely in my favor), maybe you will do so in reply to such an inquiry (or the mediator). Your firm's practices and your case load ("50 cases") is not my concern. Of course you may communicate your legal reasoning on this also. RE communications, it has only happened once again, since our videocall (I retrieved that email from junk).

I firmly state I wish to pursue, and I am ready to participate in, mediation immediately and I have been since the judge's order. (And please, be respectful and do not expect me to respond immediately to last-minute deadlines.)

I will/or may reply more specifically to you regarding your last email and continuing threats and intimidation. I consider it abusive and inconducive to the case. Put another way, do you or does your client have any desire to resolve the case (mediation now) or is this just about ~~frivolous~~ malicious litigation?

Finally, I am a writer and communicator. My very first email and other things I have shared have been in absolute, 100% good faith, e.g., "disputes on their merits" as you state (this looks as though it could be written by you). I'll have to check; I don't believe I ever received a reply and an initial meeting only occurred months later after a judge's order. Nick Bennett has never said a word. It seems this has now become about malice. I was willing to let it go. But now, should you continue to trial and if I lose, which I consider extremely unlikely, I have good reason to take further action.

Sincerely,

Peter Pfeiffer

Mr. Pfeiffer,

I am out of the office through Wednesday of next week. I cannot open the file format you sent, please revise and send again and copy my team so they can process the documents and ensure we can read them upon my return.

As I have stated numerous times, you must copy my team on all communications. I understand you only want communications to come from me, but it disrupts our process quite heavily when you don't copy my team. Especially when I am out for extended periods, as happens frequently. We are doing our best to accommodate you by sending paper courtesy copies of all items filed. Respectfully, I'd appreciate you doing the same by copying my team on all communications.

Finally, please send some dates you are available in the next few weeks to attend mediation. My team will reach out and get a mediation scheduled that works for both of our availability. Please do not fail to copy my team on this as I am out of the office, and this is a function they fully perform. Responses from me will be heavily delayed over the next week and I want to ensure things keep moving forward.

Subject: Advanced Consulting/Pfeiffer: Mediation Scheduling

Good afternoon Mr. Pfeiffer,

My name is Aaron-I am the legal assistant on your matter. I will be corresponding with you in order to schedule mediation. Attached is a list of court approved mediators. I have narrowed down list to four mediators who are able to mediate our case. Please let me know if you have any objections to these mediators.

Susan Demidovich
Jennifer Friedman
Gregory Garner
Eric Moutz

I am obtaining dates and times of availability for each of these, and I will circulate those times to you as soon as I have them.

Best regards

Aaron

Hello Mr. Pfeiffer,

I am attempting to schedule a mediation date again with you on behalf of Edison McDaniels. We are waiting for your response to get the mediation date finalized. These are the dates and times of availability of the mediators from the attached Office of Dispute Resolution Mediator list. I'm sure that not all the dates are still available, but it usually takes a few times going back and forth with all parties to settle on an acceptable date for all parties. This is a normal part of the process. The goal here is to communicate between you and I, with the other members of our team copied, in order to schedule the mediation, which Mr. McDaniels will attend.

Please respond with the dates and times you are available to attend the mediation.

Hello,

Attached is the latest draft requested by and being sent today to Colorado Office of Attorney Regulation Counsel. This was initially prepared Dec. 2025 and has been sent to Mr. McDaniels. This should be provided to the mediator.

I still have not heard from Mr. McDaniels RE mediation. I have received word from the court this week of another hard deadline and a dismissal if not conducted.

I will send later today or tomorrow documents shared with Mr. McDaniels regarding ethics, frivolous, and ethics violations associated with this case. Again, I have received no reply to these essential issues.

I have asked Mr. McDaniels in writing for a legal ethics and preferably retired judge as mediator.

I anticipate also sending to you supplemental disclosures.

Thank you,

Peter Pfeiffer

Mr. Pfeiffer,

We have left you multiple voicemails (from me personally) and have emailed you numerous times to schedule mediation. You have indicated that you are receiving our emails based on the responses below, yet we do not have a response to the mediation scheduling, an item you state is important. Additionally, you claim to have sent letters to my office that we have not received. The only piece of physical mail we have received was a copy of your initial disclosure certificate, dated 5/14/2026 and received on or about 5/19/2026.

I have highlighted the only two mediation settings below that have not passed. If we need to obtain additional dates to conform to your availability, please let us know.

*If we do not receive a response regarding mediation scheduling by 5pm MST tomorrow, June 24, 2026, we will be filing a status report with the court that you have been non-responsive to our attempts to schedule mediation.

Please provide a response by 5pm MST June 24, 2026.

Mr. Pfeiffer,

As I have stated time and time again, we work as a team and will not alter our workflow to accommodate your request that all emails originate from me. Given your responses, you are clearly receiving our emails. The main reason we have sent you emails with the items we have filed is so you receive notice ASAP. Your request to receive all communication by US Mail will cause certain items to arrive in your possession too late for proper consideration. For example, we filed our response to your motion to dismiss with the court yesterday. We have also sent it by US Mail, but there is a hearing on Friday that we believe having that filing would be in your best interest before the hearing. Additionally, if you choose to file a Reply, it is due seven days after our Response was filed, not seven days after you receive it in the mail. We are doing this as a courtesy to you so you may have the best opportunity to participate.

Although it is clear that you are receiving our emails, you have not once responded to any of our requests for your availability for mediation or evaluation of mediators. Additionally, I have personally left you voicemails requesting that you respond by phone or email to our requests for mediation. Your affirmative failure to communicate and unreasonable demands on communication methods despite receipt of our attempts to communicate are not our responsibility. We continue to provide proper notice by US mail in addition to emailing filings to you to ensure you have timely notice.

Regarding your letters and materials sent by mail, to date we have only received one item. Your "initial disclosure" that arrived on or about 5/19/26. You referenced "the return of formal correspondence sent via certified mail" in your motion. I am unsure what you expect my office to do regarding mail that was not delivered to us. If it was returned to you there must have been some sort of defect in the address or some other item to prevent it from arriving. Our address is the same as it was when the initial disclosure was sent.

The letter you attached to your email was never received by my office by US Mail. Again, the only item we have received from you is the initial disclosure document.

Subject: Please Stop Assistant Email - District Court Case

Mr. McDaniels,

Once again, please stop your assistant ("paralegal") from sending me email. Another was sent yesterday. I am not in the e-system for this case and do not have "e-service."

I have received numerous other unwanted emails from your assistants as well.

Also, I have not received any letters or replies from materials and emails recently sent to you.

See attached letter(s) mailed to you in May.

Thank you,

Peter Pfeiffer

Mr. Pfeiffer,

I have no response to this. You have copied and pasted several of the rules of professional conduct. I do not know what you are expecting a response on.

Mr. McDaniels,

This has been sent numerous times in different renditions as well.

I have not received a response from you, nor have you responded to any emails sent to you through your staff.

I will reformat this for Word and resend it.

Sincerely,

Peter Pfeiffer
